REGIONAL MEMORANDUM

No. 044-2018

DEPED-CAR Time: _____

ADDENDUM AND CORRIGENDUM TO REGIONAL MEMO NO. 38, series 2018
(2018 CORDILLERA ADMINISTRATIVE REGION ATHLETIC ASSOCIATION (CARAA) MEET)

To: All Schools Division Superintendents
All Others Concerned

1. As a result of emergency meetings between the CARAA Board, the Provincial Government of Abra (PGA), and the technical management officials, the following measures and reminders shall be adopted for the smooth conduct of games as well as to ensure the safety and security of all participants to the 2018 CARAA Meet:

- a. All sporting events must be finished by 5 P.M. In case of time extension, the tournament managers must inform the head of the security personnel in-charge of their playing venue.
- b. Since games must not go beyond 5 P.M. and be concluded possibly by February 8, 2018 for an earlier closing and awarding ceremonies, delegations must be advised that some games will start as early as 7 A.M. Games in Football, Futsal, Badminton, Softball and Baseball shall start in the morning of February 4 (Opening Day). Final schedule of games shall be presented during the Solidarity Meeting on February 3, 2018, 1 P.M. at the ASIST Bangued Gym.
- c. Curfew is set at 8 P.M. Delegation officials, coaches, chaperons, and athletes must be in their respective billeting schools or delegation camps on or before said time. Delegations may impose their own curfew but must not be beyond 8 P.M.
- d. The travel schedule of each delegation including their list of VIPs who will join the opening and succeeding days must be submitted through email not later than February 1, 2018.
- e. Coaches, athletes and other delegation officials are not allowed to use/carry backpacks during the opening parade except for the delegation nurses or designated individuals who will be tasked to carry drinking water and first aid kits. The PGA shall, likewise, put up water stations within the Abra Sports Complex.
- f. All participants must wear their delegation IDs at all times even outside their playing venues and when roaming around within the capital town of Bangued as well as the surrounding areas of their billeting schools. Each delegation must submit the design/format/template of their delegation ID for security purposes to PGA not later than February 1, 2018 via email.
