OTHER INFORMATION:

Registration: Except for the organizing committee members, all presenters must register and pay the participation fee in order to attend the 2018 Bantula International Conference on Culture-Based Education. For papers with several authors, at least one of the authors must attend in order for the paper to be included in the 2018 BANTULA International Conference on Culture-Based Education (BICCE) program.

Important: It is every author's primary responsibility to ensure that articles and accompanying materials submitted for the 2018 BANTULA International Conference on Culture-Based Education (BICCE) are accurate and are not offensive to any person or institution. All ideas and work not of the authors' must be fully referenced. Articles and their accompanying illustration tools (i.e. charts, photos, diagrams, and graphs) should be thoroughly checked for copyright infringement issues and ready for online publication without imminent legal risks. Articles reflect the authors' opinions and perspectives on certain issues and not those of the 2018 BANTULA International Conference on Culture-Based Education (BICCE) organizers and staff. Organizers and staff take no responsibility and accept no liability for the impact and consequences of any article published in the conference proceedings. The author retains his/her copyright after abstracts and full papers are submitted to the 2018 BANTULA International Conference on Culture-Based Education (BICCE).
